Sum assured and premium

Sum assured	Monthly premium
1 crore rupees (1,00,00,000)	1,180 rupees

The sum assured stated in this schedule is 1 crore rupees. The monthly premium of 1,180 rupees is fixed for the policy term and carries no GST because individual life insurance premiums are exempt from GST.

> This schedule should be read together with the benefits and conditions on the following pages.

Benefits and riders

What this proposed policy pays

Death benefit

If the life assured dies during the policy term while the policy is in force, the sum assured of 1 crore rupees is paid in one lump sum.

Riders attached to this schedule

Rider	Status in this schedule	Monthly cost
Accidental death and disability	Not attached	0 rupees
Waiver of premium	Not attached	0 rupees
Hospital daily cash	Not attached	0 rupees

The critical illness rider is excluded from this schedule and no critical illness benefit is payable under it.

Tax

Under the old tax regime premiums may qualify for a deduction up to the overall limit of 1.5 lakh rupees a year under sections 123 and 126 of the Income-tax Act 2025. A death benefit is generally tax free under section 10(10D). This is general information, not tax advice.

Exclusions, grace, lapse and revival

Conditions that apply to this proposed policy

Suicide exclusion

If the life assured dies by suicide within 24 months of the date the risk started or of a revival, no benefit is payable and no premiums are refunded. Death after 24 months is not excluded for this reason.

Section 45 of the Insurance Act

After two years from the date of issue, the policy cannot be called in question on any ground. Within those two years the insurer may question the policy for fraud or a wrong or hidden fact.

Grace period

A grace period of 10 days from the premium due date is allowed for monthly premiums. If the premium is not paid by the end of the grace period the policy lapses.

Revival

A lapsed policy may be revived within five years from the first unpaid premium by paying the unpaid premiums with interest. A health declaration or a medical examination may be required.

Claims, free-look and complaints

Your rights and how to use them

Free-look period

You have 30 days from receiving this policy document to review it. If you do not agree with any term you may return the policy for cancellation. The refund is the premium paid minus a proportionate risk premium for the period covered, the cost of any medical examination and the stamp duty.

Making a claim

Claims can be registered at any time through the NexaSure portal. Claims are settled within 15 days of intimation, or within 45 days if the claim needs investigation.

Complaints

Write to the grievance officer first. A complaint is acknowledged immediately and the insurer must resolve it within 14 days. If you are not satisfied you can go to the Insurance Ombudsman within one year, free of charge. The ombudsman's award is capped at 50 lakh rupees.
