Benefits and riders

What the policy pays

Death benefit

If the life assured dies during the policy term while the policy is in force, the sum assured chosen at the start is paid to the nominee.

Critical illness rider

An optional rider pays a lump sum of 10 lakh, 25 lakh or 50 lakh rupees on diagnosis of a covered critical illness, for 89, 149 or 269 rupees a month respectively. In this demo product the rider has a waiting period of ninety days from the start and a survival period of fourteen days after diagnosis before the lump sum is paid. These periods are NexaSure demo terms.

Accidental death and disability rider

Pays either a lump sum of 50 lakh rupees for 79 rupees a month, or an income of 1 lakh rupees a month for 100 months for 129 rupees a month.

Waiver of premium and hospital cash

The waiver of premium rider costs 42 rupees a month. The hospital daily cash rider pays 2,000 rupees for each day of hospitalisation and costs 55 rupees a month.

Free-look, grace period and revival

Your rights after the policy is issued

Clause 3: Free-look period

You have thirty days from receiving this policy document to review it. If you do not agree with any term you may return the policy for cancellation and the insurer must accept whatever your reason. The refund is the premium paid minus a proportionate risk premium for the period covered, the cost of any medical examination and the stamp duty. It is not always a full refund.

Clause 2: Grace period

A grace period of thirty days from the premium due date is allowed for quarterly, half-yearly and annual premiums, and fifteen days for monthly premiums. No penalty or late fee is charged and cover continues without a break during the grace period.

Clause 8: Lapse and revival

If premiums are not paid by the end of the grace period the policy lapses. A lapsed policy may be revived within the period stated in this document, which in this demo product is five years from the first unpaid premium, by paying the unpaid premiums with interest. A health declaration or a medical examination may be required.

Exclusions, Section 45 and tax

Important conditions

Clause 4: Suicide

If the life assured dies by suicide within twelve months of the date the risk started, or of a revival, the nominee is paid at least eighty percent of the premiums paid or the surrender value, whichever is higher, provided the policy is in force. Death by suicide after twelve months is not excluded for this reason.

Clause 1: Section 45 of the Insurance Act 1938

After three years from the latest of the date of issue, the date the risk began, the revival date or the rider date, no life insurance policy can be called in question on any ground. Within those three years it can be questioned only for fraud or for a wrong or hidden fact that matters to the life expectancy, and the insurer must give its grounds in writing. If a claim is rejected for a misstatement the premiums collected are returned within ninety days.

Tax

Under the old tax regime premiums may qualify for a deduction up to the overall limit of 1.5 lakh rupees a year under sections 123 and 126 of the Income-tax Act 2025. A death benefit is generally tax free under section 10(10D). This is general information, not tax advice.

Nomination, claims and complaints

Making a claim or raising a concern

Nomination

You may name one or more nominees and the share each receives, which must total one hundred percent. If a nominee is under eighteen an adult appointee must be named. A policy taken under section 6 of the Married Women's Property Act is held in trust for the wife and children.

Making a claim

Claims can be registered at any time through the NexaSure portal. NexaSure aims to respond within two hours; this is a demo target, not an audited result. By rule a death claim must be settled within fifteen days of intimation, or within forty-five days if it needs investigation.

Complaints

Write to the grievance officer first. A complaint is acknowledged immediately and the insurer must resolve it within fourteen days. If you are not satisfied you can go to the Insurance Ombudsman within one year, free of charge and without a lawyer. The ombudsman's award is capped at fifty lakh rupees.
